

Summer Reading 2018

For Teens

Here's how it works:

For every book you read, take either a selfie with the book, or take a picture of the book itself and make it all snazzy. You and the book, or just the book, is going to end up on

Additionally, for every one book you read, you get one raffle ticket you can put towards a gift certificate to the Liberty Tree Mall, or to the AMC movie theater, or to Popo's. For every three books read, you get two raffle tickets—one for the above prizes and one I will put towards the big prize: a Kindle Fire.

MAY THE ODDS BE EVER IN YOUR FAVOR
